Woman's Rights Circular, which appeared in the Statesman of Thursday last.

An article published in Saturday's Statesman, from the pen of a pioneer in the Woman's Right movement, indicates that the writer mistakes the design of of the Circular and the form of a class of petitions. Allow me to state for the information of all interested, that it was not the intention to incorporate in the Circular all the rights petitioned for, but to present to the men and women of Ohio, a brief spnopsis of the laws which relate to widows', dower, the expense incurred in the practical administration of the estates of deceased persons, and the cruelty of laws which rob and send many widows to the poor house, the lunatic asylum and the grave.

The petitions ask that the rights of both widows and married women be secured more fully. Relying, as we do and must, upon the Working Men's Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—Although a deep snow covers the streets to-night, rendering pedestrianism most uncomfortable, the mass meeting of the working men of the city at Independence Square is largely attended.—Some five or six thousand men, standing ankle deep in the snow, are listening to the speeches. The representatives of the employees of all the large manufacturing estaplishments of the county, marched to the place of meeting, bearing torches and fanterus and accompanied by bands of music.

Mr. Isaac Van Hongton, Superinjendant of the Pennsylvania Railroad Car Works, presided over the del-berations of the meeting.

A series of ably written resolutions were read and unanimously adopted, taking the ground that the piesent national troubles were inaugurated and fostered by political damagogues; recommending the repeal by the State Legislature of all obnoxious laws, and the passage by Congress of the Crittenden plan of compromise, or some other measure to be submitted to the people, and in case the present Congress find itself unable to agree upon any such terms, requesting the members thereof to resign their seats, that they may be filled with competent representatives of the popularwill.

The resolutions also deprecate any collision between the forces of the General Covernment and any of the States, as such a calamity would strike the death-blow to all hopes of a settlement. They piedge the workingmen to sustain the Federal Government in the maintenance of its powers. They provide for the appointment of delegates to the National Convention of Working-men, to meet at Philadelphia on the 22d of February; and a committee of 33 to present these resolutions to the members of the!Legislature and Congress.

The enthusiasm manifested during the proceedings, gave evidence of the anxiety of the working-men and their determination to interfere in the present crists.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The Herald's correspondent says-I learn from a gentleman who had an interview with Mr. Lincoin, at Springfield, within the past week, that the latter in discussing the existing state of affairs, expressed himself as follows: "I will suffer death before I will consent, or will advise my friends to consent to any concession or compromise, which looks like buying the privilege of taking possession of this Government, to which we save a constitutional right, because what ever I might think of the merits of various propositions before Congress, I should regard any concession in the face of menace, the destruction of the Government itself, and the consent of all hands that our system shall be brought down to a level with the existing disorganized state of affairs in Mexico. But this thing will becauter be as it is now, in the hands of the people, and if they desire to call a convention to remove any grievances complained of, or to give new guarantees for the permanence of vested rights, it is not mine to oppose."

His dealaration caused considerable excitement in Milledgeville, and the Governor was requested to send a military force to Dahlonega, but had not done so to the date of the advices.

On the same authority as the above, we learn that there is a considerable union element in the mountains of Georgia, and an anti-secession meeting was held in Pickins county, when they heard of the passage of the secession ordinance, the old stars and stripes were run dp, and the demonstrations of resistance to secession were emphatic and unequivocal.

The impression, however, was at Millidgeville, that the people of Georgia will generally sustain the ordinance of secession, and co-operate in the formation of a southern cotton State Republic.
